Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi received a telephone call today from the Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany, H.E. Friedrich Merz.

The two leaders reviewed progress in the India-Germany Strategic Partnership and expressed satisfaction at the sustained momentum in bilateral engagements. As India and Germany celebrate 75 years of diplomatic relations this year, the leaders reaffirmed their commitment to further strengthening cooperation across key sectors, including defence and advanced technologies. They noted that the India-EU Free Trade Agreement would unlock several new opportunities for expanding bilateral trade and investment.

The leaders exchanged views on regional and global developments of mutual interest. They agreed to continue working closely together to promote global peace, stability and a rules-based international order. They also emphasised the importance of continued cooperation at multilateral fora in addressing contemporary global challenges.
