National Zoological Park, New Delhi to Remain Closed for Visitors on 21st and 22nd November 2026 in View of the First SCO Civilizational Dialogue Forum

Posted On: 20 NOV 2026 8:12PM by PIB Delhi

The National Zoological Park, New Delhi, will remain closed to visitors on 21st and 22nd November 2026 in view of the First Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) Civilizational Dialogue Forum, scheduled to be held at Purana Qila, New Delhi.

The temporary closure has been ordered in accordance with the approval of the competent authority, considering the arrangements and security-related requirements associated with the international event.

During this period, all essential activities relating to animal care, feeding, veterinary care, welfare and day-to-day management of the animals at the National Zoological Park will continue as usual, ensuring that the well-being of the zoo animals remains unaffected.

Visitors are requested to take note of the temporary closure and plan their visit accordingly. The National Zoological Park regrets any inconvenience caused and appreciates the cooperation and understanding of the visitors.
