PR No.40/2025

Update on Interim Order Compliance by Jane Street

This is in response to several media queries regarding the captioned matter.

This is to confirm that Jane Street has informed SEBI that in compliance with paragraph 62.1 of the July 3, 2025 Interim Order, a sum of INR 4,843,57,70,168/- (Four Thousand Eight Hundred Forty Three Crore Fifty Seven Lakh Seventy Thousand One Hundred and Sixty Eight Rupees only) has been credited to an escrow account with a lien marked in favour of SEBI. They have further stated that this action has been undertaken by them without prejudice to their rights and remedies which remain available to them in law and equity.

Jane Street has further requested SEBI that, following the creation of this escrow account in compliance with SEBI directions, certain conditional restrictions imposed under the interim order be lifted and that SEBI issue appropriate directions in this regard.

This request is currently under examination by SEBI in accordance with the directions of the interim order.

SEBI remains committed to following due process and ensuring the integrity of the securities market.
