The farmer must involve thoroughly with marketing of agriculture produce, value addition of agriculture produced. , , input – fertilizer, insecticide, and everything – implements, instruments – - , ,

I have emphasised three things in particular. One, agro-economy is not confined to agro-production only. In all facets of agro-economy, its production, its marketing, its value addition, the farmer must have a very high share. Entrepreneurs from the farming community. — Agripreneurs. This country must have millions of Agripreneurs.
