A delegation of Special Envoys from the Republic of Korea (ROK), led by Mr. Kim Boo Kyum, met the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi in New Delhi today.

Recalling his recent positive meeting with ROK President Mr. Jaemyung Lee, Prime Minister, Shri Modi reaffirmed India's commitment to advancing the India–ROK Special Strategic Partnership, which marks its 10th year. He highlighted the partnership's continued growth across key sectors including innovation, defence, shipbuilding, and skilled mobility.

In a post on X, he wrote:

“Delighted to receive the delegation of Special Envoys from the Republic of Korea led by Mr. Kim Boo Kyum. Recalled my positive meeting with President @Jaemyung_Lee last month. India–ROK Special Strategic Partnership, which completes 10 years, continues to grow from innovation and defence to shipbuilding and skilled mobility. Close collaboration between the democracies contributes to peace, stability, and prosperity in the Indo-Pacific region.”
