Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today shared the thoughtful address delivered by President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu, on the eve of 79th Independence Day. He said the address highlighted the collective progress of our nation and the opportunities ahead and the call to every citizen to contribute towards nation-building.

In separate posts on X, he said:

“On the eve of our Independence Day, Rashtrapati Ji has given a thoughtful address in which she has highlighted the collective progress of our nation and the opportunities ahead. She reminded us of the sacrifices that paved the way for India's freedom and called upon every citizen to contribute towards nation-building.
