

Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi calls-on PM Narendra Modi

PM emphasises the importance of peace and tranquillity on the border for bilateral relations

Prime Minister welcomes steady and positive progress in bilateral ties since his meeting with President Xi in Kazan last year

Prime Minister accepts invitation of President Xi to attend SCO Summit

PM underlines that stable, predictable, and constructive bilateral ties will contribute significantly to regional and global peace and prosperity

Posted On: 19 AUG 2025 7:38PM by PIB Delhi

Today, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi received Mr Wang Yi, Member of the Politburo of the Communist Party and Foreign Minister of China.

Mr. Wang Yi handed over message and invitation from President Xi to Prime Minister for the SCO Summit being held in Tianjin. He also shared his positive assessment of bilateral meeting with EAM Dr. S. Jaishankar and 24th Meeting of the Special Representatives, which he co-chaired with NSA Shri Ajit Doval during his visit.

Prime Minister emphasised the importance of maintaining peace and tranquillity on the border, and reiterated India's commitment to a fair, reasonable and mutually acceptable resolution of the boundary question.

Prime Minister welcomed the steady and positive progress in bilateral ties since his meeting with President Xi in Kazan last year, guided by mutual respect, mutual interest and mutual sensitivity, including the resumption of the Kailash Manasarovar Yatra.

Prime Minister thanked President Xi for the invitation to the SCO Summit and conveyed his acceptance. He expressed support for China's Presidency of the SCO Summit and said that he looked forward to meeting President Xi in Tianjin. PM underlined that stable, predictable, and constructive ties between India and China will contribute significantly to regional and global peace and prosperity.

MJPS

(Release ID: 2158112)