The Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today shared an article explaining how the North-East is becoming the front-runner of the country. He emphasised the article by Union Minister Shri Ashwini Vaishnaw on how inauguration of the Bairabi-Sairang railway line marks a historic milestone, connecting Mizoram to the national railway network, opening new doors of trade, connectivity and opportunity.

The PMO India handle in a post on X said:

“The North-East is no longer a frontier waiting for progress but is central to India’s growth story. The inauguration of the Bairabi-Sairang railway line marks a historic milestone, connecting Mizoram to the national railway network, opening new doors of trade, connectivity and opportunity.
