

Swachhata Hi Seva (SHS) – 2025 Campaign: National cleanliness drive under ministry of Textiles

Posted On: 24 SEP 2025 11:19AM by PIB Delhi

As part of Swachhata Hi Seva 2025 campaign, offices under the ministry of Textiles conducted different activities all across the country.

A Medical camp was organized at the Central Silk Board (CSB), Bangalore.

Office of the Development Commissioner for Handicrafts organized the "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" plantation drive for the beautification of the office premises on 23.09.2025.

The Office of the Development Commissioner for Handlooms, Ministry of Textiles along with Weavers Service Centre (WSC), Bhubaneswar organized Awareness Campaign to educate participants on the importance of hygiene sanitation and sustainability in daily life.

The Jute Corporation of India Limited (JCI) Regional Office has conducted cleaning activity of "Railway Station & Railway Track under "Public Area Cleaning Campaign" at Bethuadahari, Nadia District where Railway staffs as well public were also participated.

The Jute Corporation of India Limited (JCI) Regional Office has conducted "Safai Mitras Suraksha Shivirs" for Safai Mitras of the Corporation as well for Public, where more than 100 peoples got benefits of free Health Check up Facilities along with Medicines.

Central Cottage Industries Corporation of India Ltd (CCIC) carried out trimming and pruning of trees in its premises at Janpath, New Delhi on 23.09.2025.

National Jute Board (NJB) organized 'Cleanliness Drive' at New Town, Kolkata.

Here are some glimpses from the activities:-

Central Silk Board (Silk)-

Office of the Development Commissioner for Handicrafts-

Office of the Development Commissioner for Handlooms-

The Jute Corporation of India Limited (JCI)-

Central Cottage Industries Corporation of India Ltd. (CCIC)-

National Jute Board (NJB)-

MAM/AK/SMP

(Release ID: 2170462)