Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today paid heartfelt tributes to Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya on the occasion of his Jayanti, recalling his profound contributions to India's ideological and developmental journey.

The Prime Minister emphasized that Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya's philosophy of Integral Humanism and his vision of Antyodaya—uplifting the last person in the queue—continue to inspire India's development model. He noted that these principles are deeply embedded in the government's approach to inclusive growth and nation-building.
