

MoS Shri Prataprao Jadhav Leads Cleanliness Drive under 'Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek Saath' Campaign at Nirman Bhawan, New Delhi

Posted On: 25 SEP 2025 7:17PM by PIB Delhi

As part of the nationwide voluntary Swachhata drive 'Ek Din, Ek Ghanta, Ek Saath', the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare today organized a cleanliness activity along the roadside boundary of Nirman Bhawan and the Ministry of External Affairs building in New Delhi. The drive commenced at 8:00 AM with enthusiastic participation from officials and staff of the Ministry.

Shri Jadhav joined the Shramdaan and inspired officers and employees by personally engaging in the cleanliness activities. His presence reinforced the message of collective responsibility towards hygiene and sanitation in public spaces.

The initiative formed a part of the ongoing Swachhata Hi Seva campaign, which seeks to foster community participation and citizen action for a cleaner and healthier India. Employees from across divisions and sections of the Ministry actively participated, contributing to the spirit of this nationwide movement.

The Union Health Ministry reaffirmed its commitment to the vision of a Swachh Bharat, emphasizing that sustained citizen engagement and collective effort are vital for achieving a clean, healthy, and sustainable future.

MV/GS

(Release ID: 2171363)