Department of Justice, Ministry of Law and Justice took part in the nationwide Voluntarily Shramdaan - “Ek Din Ek Ghanta Ek Saath” activity on 25.09.2025 in the Jaisalmer House under the Swachhata Hi Seva (SHS) 2025 - Swachhotsav campaign.

Secretary (Justice) led the campaign aiming at promoting a culture of cleanliness, hygiene and discipline within the workplace; highlighting the power of collective efforts in line with the theme of this year's “Swachhotsav” [“”] connecting festive spirit of the nation, reinforcing the vision of clean India. The shramdaan focused on sustainable environment and well-being for all.

A briefing session on three R's-Reduce, Reuse, Recycle by Dr. Radha Goyal, Deputy Director, IPCA has also been organised by the Department for its officers and staff. The session highlighted on the need to utilize these principles in our day to day life to rearrange waste management activities and prioritizing environmental preferences. The aim of the session has been to inculcate sustainable practices.

Under the Clean Green Utsav, one of the focus areas of SHS -2025, a tree plantation drive has also been organised in the front lawn of Jaisalmer house.
