Union Minister of Textiles, Shri Giriraj Singh holds a special interaction programme with all Safai Mitras of the Ministry. The Union Minister inquired about their daily routine, working environment and noted the challenges faced by them in their line of duty. He also lauded their invaluable contribution in ensuring cleanliness and hygiene, underscoring their crucial role in society.

As a token of appreciation, each Safai Mitra was presented with a kit containing a T-shirt, mask, sanitizer, and other essential items. Food packets were also distributed during the programme. The event was held in a very motivating atmosphere, reflecting the Ministry's continued commitment towards promoting cleanliness, upholding the dignity of labour, and ensuring the welfare of Safai Mitras.

CYBER HYGIENE

In today's digital world

- Our online habits affect not just security but also mental health.
- Poor cyber hygiene
- Like oversharing, weak boundaries, or chaotic online presence.
- Can amplify feelings of self-doubt and comparison, directly linking to imposter syndrome.
- Practicing strong cyber hygiene can therefore act as a shield, reducing triggers and supporting confidence.

National Handloom Development Corporation Limited is with @dc_handlooms and @texminindia.
