Mumbai, 30 October 2025

The 17th Tribal Youth Exchange Program is taking place at the Police Training Center, Marol, Mumbai. Organized by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs in collaboration with the Union Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, and coordinated by the Maharashtra State Police, started on October 27, 2025, and will conclude on November 2, 2025.

The program today witnessed the esteemed presence of Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya, Union Minister of Youth Affairs and Sports.

Speaking to the tribal youths, Union Minister Dr. Mandaviya emphasized the crucial role of young tribal leaders in building a developed India by 2047. He urged the youth to actively contribute toward the nation's vision of "Viksit Bharat" through skill development and digital empowerment.

Dr. Mandaviya also highlighted the significance of the Mera Yuva (My) Bharat portal, encouraging the youth to establish a digital presence on the platform. The portal provides comprehensive information on job opportunities, skill development programs, online competitions, and avenues for sharing meaningful work and thoughts, enabling the youth to stay informed and engaged.

The event was graced by other dignitaries, including Shri Pravin Kumar Padwal, Special Inspector General of Police, Training Department, Maharashtra State Police; Shri Anup Ingole, District Youth Officer, My Bharat Mumbai; Shri Ravindra Dalvi, Principal, Police Training Center, Marol; and Yatin Bangera of the Judo Association.

This initiative underscores the commitment of the Government of India to empower tribal youth with knowledge, skills, and opportunities for all-round development and active participation in nation-building.
