The Prime Minister has directed Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances (DARPG) to hold virtual conferences/ webinars with District Collectors and other officers in which past award winners of PM's Awards for Excellence in Public Administration be invited to present their experiences with the objective of greater dissemination and replication.

In pursuance of the Prime Minister's directions, the DARPG has conducted 32 National Good Governance Webinars, one Webinar every month, since April, 2022 to encourage dissemination and replication of the award-winning nominations under the Scheme of Prime Minister's Award for Excellence in Public Administration. Each webinar is attended by about 1000 officials from Line Departments, State Governments, District Collectors, State Administrative Training Institutes and Central Training Institutes.

These webinars not only present the current status of institutionalisation/ sustainability of the initiative, but also provides insights into the status of its replication/expansion.

The 32nd Webinar was held on the 31st October 2025 in which two initiatives, awarded with the PM's Award for Excellence in Public Administration for the year 2024, under the theme 'Aspirational Blocks programme', as per details below presented Power Point presentation on:

- Rama Block initiative, Jhabua, Madhya Pradesh by Ms. Neha Meena, Collector & District Magistrate, Jhabua, Madhya Pradesh; and
- Ganganagar Block initiative, Tripura, Kerala by Shri Saju Vaheed A, Mission Director, State Health & Family Welfare Society, Agartala, Govt. of Tripura.

The Webinar was chaired by Shri Puneet Yadav, Additional Secretary, DARPG and was attended by senior officers of the Department. The Webinar was attended from more than 900 locations across India with Senior Officials of Administrative Reforms Departments of States/UTs, District Collectors, State and District officers, Officers of Central and State Administrative Training Institutes.
