The Hon'ble Union Minister of Law and Justice, Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal, will represent India at the King Hamad Lecture for Neutral Justice Ceremony and the Conference on the Future of International Commercial Courts, to be held in the Kingdom of Bahrain on November 5 and 6, 2025.

The event is being organized by the Council for International Dispute Resolution of the Kingdom of Bahrain under the patronage of the Ministry of Justice, Islamic Affairs, and Endowments. The conference will bring together global leaders in law, arbitration, and judicial reform to deliberate on the future of international commercial courts and transnational justice.

Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal will deliver a keynote address on the theme “Promoting Commerce Between Bahrain and India” during a special session titled “Bahrain–India: Pathways Towards Successful Commerce.” The session will also feature Justice Surya Kant, Judge, Supreme Court of India, Prof. Marike Paulsson, Secretary-General, CIDR Bahrain, and Dr. Pinky Anand, Senior Advocate, India.

In his remarks, the Minister is expected to highlight India's progressive legal and institutional reforms aimed at enhancing the efficiency, credibility, and global integration of its commercial dispute resolution framework. He will express India's willingness to collaborate with the Council for International Dispute Resolution of Bahrain and the IAC to strengthen institutional arbitration and mediation frameworks through the exchange of best practices, professional training, and mutual recognition of arbitral awards.

India's participation in the Bahrain conference reflects its continued effort to make commercial justice fair, neutral, and efficient in transnational commercial justice.
