Posted On: 24 NOV 2025 6:00PM by PIB Delhi

Media registrations are now open for India Energy Week (IEW) 2026, to be held from January 27-30 at ONGC – Advanced Training Institute near Betul in South Goa. Media representatives may register at: <https://www.indiaenergyweek.com/media-center/media-registration/>

IEW 2026 is set to be the largest energy gathering of the year, bringing together over 75,000 energy professionals, 550+ global speakers and more than 120 conference sessions. The event will feature strategic discussions with global energy leaders on energy collaboration, equity, leadership, investment and digital frontiers.

The exhibition will showcase 700+ international and local exhibitors, 12+ country pavilions and 12 thematic zones, offering a comprehensive view of innovations across the energy value chain.

Media attendees will have access to 70+ Strategic Conference sessions, the full exhibition, interview opportunities with global leaders, daily briefings and a dedicated media centre.
