PUNE, Friday, 28 Nov 2025:

The Indian Air Force (IAF) stole the show with a thrilling Air Awareness Campaign at Air Force Station Lohegaon on 28 Nov 25, as part of the "Know Your Forces" programme. Over 10,000 school and college students witnessed the high octane display, which showcased the IAF's operational excellence, cutting edge aviation technology and the exceptional skill of Air Warriors.

The event featured a breathtaking display of precision sky diving and display of fighter aircraft, equipment & flypast. The crowd erupted in applause as the IAF's elite teams demonstrated their agility, teamwork and combat readiness, highlighting the capabilities of the frontline platforms that safeguard India's airspace.

The air awareness campaign aimed to inspire the nation's youth to consider a career in the Armed Forces and raise awareness about the IAF's military potential. Interactive sessions with Air Warriors, ground teams and onsite outreach activities gave attendees a unique insight into life in the Armed Forces.

The static display of aircraft & systems, coupled with thrilling demonstration of the 'Garud Force' and aeromodelling display left visitors especially youngsters in awe, offering a rare glimpse into the IAF's operational prowess.

Air Commodore Satbir Singh Rai, Air Officer Commanding, Air Force Station Lohegaon, expressed appreciation for the efforts of the Civil Administration in extending support to make the event a grand success.
