The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), India is organising Human Rights Day function at Auditorium 1, Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi at 10.00 am on 10th December 2025. The Hon’ble President of India, Smt Droupadi Murmu will grace the occasion as the Chief Guest. Human Rights Day is celebrated to commemorate the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) on this day in 1948. This is one of the most referred document in the world.

On Human Rights Day, a National Conference on ‘Ensuring Everyday Essentials: Public Services and Dignity for All’ is also being organised. It is aligning with this year’s Human Rights Day theme ‘Human Rights, Our Everyday Essentials.’

The keynote address at the Conference will be delivered by Chief Guest, Dr. P. K. Mishra, Principal Secretary to the Prime Minister. The Conference, under two thematic sessions, will deliberate upon the imperative of ensuring universal, equitable and dignified access to public services as an indispensable condition for ensuring human rights for all. Eminent speakers will address the Conference.

State Human Rights Commissions, other national commissions and officials from both Government of India and States/ UTs, human rights defenders, civil society organisations, members of academia, professionals, representatives of print and electronic media, among others, are expected to participate.

To attend these events, the Commission has given a link to register online at <https://www.hrcnet.nic.in/einvite/registration.aspx> till 9th December, latest by 10.00 am. Interested persons may register online through the aforesaid link. E-invites for entry to the venue will be sent via email to the confirmed registrations.
