Vice Admiral Rahul Vilas Gokhale, YSM NM, Chief of Staff, Western Naval Command, laid a floral wreath at the Gaurav Stambh in Naval Dockyard Mumbai today (04 December 2025), to commemorate Navy Day. The solemn ceremony was marked by the parade of a ceremonial guard.

The Gaurav Stambh stands as a tribute to the 'Victory at Sea', honouring the grit, extraordinary valour, selflessness, and fortitude of naval personnel that epitomize the highest traditions of the Indian Navy.

Floral wreaths were also laid by Rear Admiral Ajay Patney, Admiral Superintendent, Naval Dockyard Mumbai, and Rear Admiral Shantanu Jha, NM, Flag Officer Commanding Maharashtra Naval Area, paying homage to the naval heroes who uphold the legacy of service and sacrifice.

Navy Day annually commemorates the Indian Navy's pivotal role in securing India's maritime boundaries and celebrates the courage and professionalism of its sailors and officers.
