Shri C. Rajagopalachari—endearingly called ‘Rajaji’—was born on 10 December 1878 in the erstwhile Madras Province. In 1947, after the term of the first Governor-General of Independent India Lord Mountbatten ended, Shri Rajagopalachari was chosen to assume the post.

In recognition of his exemplary service to the nation, Shri Rajagopalachari was awarded the Bharat Ratna in 1954, becoming the first recipient of India's highest civilian honour.

A booklet containing the profile of Shri C. Rajagopalachari, brought out in Hindi and English by the Lok Sabha Secretariat, was also presented to those who attended the function.

The portrait of Shri C. Rajagopalachari was unveiled by the then President of India, Shri N. Sanjiva Reddy, in the Central Hall of Samvidhan Sadan (then Parliament House) on 21 August 1978.
