The 41st Western Region-I (WR-I) Regional Internal Audit Meet of NTPC Ltd. was held today at the NTPC WR-I Headquarters in Mumbai. Shri E. Satya Phani Kumar, Regional Executive Director (West-I) and Head of Western Region-I, chaired the meeting.

The internal audit review was conducted by Shri Anuj Kush, Chief General Manager (Internal Audit), WR-I Thermal & Gas Stations. Heads of Stations from Mouda, Solapur, Kawas, Jhanor, and Anta participated in the meet. The session concluded successfully with detailed deliberations on audit observations, compliance status, and best practices.

During the discussions, CGM (IA) appreciated the sincere efforts and significant improvements by all stations in effectively and timely closing internal audit observations.

Addressing the gathering, Shri E. Satya Phani Kumar, Regional Executive Director (West-I), stated: "A robust internal audit mechanism is central to strengthening governance and driving operational excellence. The positive progress made by WR-I stations reflects a strong culture of accountability and continuous improvement."

Smt. Vandana Chaturvedi, Regional Head of HR (West-I), was also present. She said: "Effective audit processes not only strengthen systems and controls but also foster a culture of learning and responsibility. The collective efforts of our teams across WR-I demonstrate their commitment to integrity, compliance, and organisational excellence."

The meet provided a valuable platform for constructive interaction, experience sharing, and reinforcing NTPC's focus on transparency and best practices across Western Region-I.
