Union Minister for Youth Affairs & Sports, Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya today addressed the newly appointed District Youth Officers (DYOs) at the Orientation Ceremony and affirmed the need to prepare youth for Viksit Bharat.

Asserting the youth as the future of Viksit Bharat, Dr. Mandaviya encouraged the newly appointed officers to work with clarity in mission mode towards Viksit Bharat with a Nation First approach.

The Union Minister addressed the newly appointed officers during induction training program — DIKSHA (DYOs Dedicated Induction Training for Knowledge, Skill, and Holistic Attitude for Service) — at CSOI, New Delhi.

During the event, the Hon’ble Minister also handed over appointment letters to the newly recruited DYOs selected through the Pratibha Setu Portal during the ceremony.

Drawing inspiration from the Bhagavad Gita, the Hon’ble Minister said that hard work, morality, and commitment towards duty would enable the newly inducted officers to achieve success in every domain of life.

The Union Minister of Youth Affairs said District Youth Officer and Mera Yuva Bharat are ambitious windows of opportunities aimed at harnessing the potential of youth of the country.

The Union Minister further highlighted the need to tap the demographic dividend, as 65 percent of the population is below 35 years of age.

Dr Mandaviya also referred to the clarion call of the Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi for creating one lakh youth leaders, a role to be carried forward by the newly appointed officers.

Addressing the newly appointed District Youth Officers of MY Bharat, Pallavi Jain Govil, Secretary, Youth Affairs, stressed the need to inculcate the spirit of "Service before Self" as the cornerstone of public service in building a successful nation.

She also highlighted the need for Youth Officers to carry the task of building society and giving back to it through public service.
