

Ministry of Home Affairs: Year End Review 2025

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 31 DEC 2025 9:59PM by PIB Delhi

The year 2025 was a watershed year for the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) as many landmark achievement were made towards fulfilling Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's vision of Safe, Secure, and Viksit Bharat. Under the guidance of Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah, the MHA focused on strengthening internal security and country's efforts to deal with serious threats like terrorism, extremism, organized crime and cyber-attacks.

The key highlights of the ministry included the near-elimination of Left-Wing Extremism (LWE), effective counter-terrorism strategies, significant progress in implementing New Criminal Laws, enhanced cyber security, ruthless approach and zero tolerance against drugs and preparations for the transformative Census 2027. These initiatives, bolstered by technology, community engagement, and inter-agency collaboration, led to reduced violence, higher conviction rates, and empowerment of marginalized groups, embodying the principles of Nyay (Justice), Suraksha (Security), and Samriddhi.

Left-Wing Extremism (LWE): Naxalmukt Bharat Abhiyan Achieves Milestone

Under the vision of the Modi government to build a Naxalism-free India, the Ministry of Home Affairs has upped the ante to completely eradicate the menace of left-wing extremism by March 31, 2026.
