

Prime Minister Pays Tribute to Savitribai Phule on Her Birth Anniversary

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 03 JAN 2026 8:07AM by PIB Delhi

On the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule today, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi remembered the pioneering social reformer whose life was devoted to the transformation of society through service and education.

Shri Modi stated that Savitribai Phule was committed to the principles of equality, justice, and compassion. She firmly believed that education was the most powerful instrument of social change and dedicated her life to transforming lives through knowledge and learning.

Highlighting her remarkable contributions, Shri Narendra Modi noted that her work in caring for the vulnerable and marginalized remains an inspiring example of service and humanity. He emphasized that her vision continues to guide the nation's efforts in building an inclusive and empowered society.

In separate posts on X, Shri Modi wrote:

“On the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, we remember a pioneer whose life was devoted to the transformation of society through service and education. She was committed to principles of equality, justice and compassion. She believed that education was the most powerful instrument of social change and focused on transforming lives through knowledge as well as learning. Her work in caring for the vulnerable is also noteworthy.”
