

56th International Film Festival of India Concludes on a Grand Note; PIB Captures the Festival's Complete Journey Through Dedicated Coverage and IFFILOID Daily

Mumbai, 1st December, 2025

The 56th edition of the International Film Festival of India (IFFI) concluded with grandeur, creativity and a celebration of global cinema. Over the course of the festival, audiences witnessed a vibrant lineup of screenings, red carpet appearances, press conferences, interactive discussions, master classes, book launches and cultural showcases bringing together filmmakers, artists, industry delegates and cinema lovers from across the world.

The Press Information Bureau (PIB) ensured comprehensive and continuous coverage of all event highlights throughout the festival. From film press conferences to panel discussions, from red carpet moments to exclusive interactions, PIB documented every major activity, enabling viewers, media professionals and enthusiasts to revisit the finest memories and key engagements of IFFI.

As a one-stop source of information for Media Delegates, PIB has created a dedicated IFFI Microsite, serving as an archive of the festival. The portal provides complete access to press conferences, photographs, press releases, stories, event updates and exclusive content from across the 56th IFFI edition. Through this digital platform, users can browse detailed festival happenings at a glance and relive the cinematic brilliance showcased this year.

In addition to live event documentation, PIB also published the daily festival bulletin 'IFFILOID', capturing the day-to-day essence of IFFI. Each issue featured highlights of screenings, celebrity interactions, industry announcements, knowledge sessions and other key engagements, offering a crisp timeline of the festival as it unfolded.

The 56th IFFI once again proved to be a melting pot of talent, innovation, culture and exchange of ideas, and PIB's extensive coverage stands as a comprehensive record of this remarkable celebration of cinema.
