Publications Division, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, is participating in the New Delhi World Book Fair 2026, being held at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi from 10th January to 18th January, 2026. The 9-day mega fair is being organised by National Book Trust, an autonomous organization of the Government of India under the Ministry of Education, in collaboration with India Trade Promotion Organisation.

Aligning with the Book Fair's theme of "Indian Military History: Valour & Wisdom @ 75", Publications Division is set to captivate visitors and book lovers with a diverse array of books in English, Hindi, and other Indian languages. The books in the offering are bound to enrapture the minds of the bibliophiles visiting the fair.

The display also includes books on a diverse topic such as art and culture, history, cinema, personalities and biographies, land and people, Gandhian literature and children's literature, among others. The Division's premium range of books comprising 'Rashtrapati Bhavan Series', 'Selected Speeches of President, Vice President and Prime Minister', 'The Collected Works of Mahatma Gandhi' and 'Collected Works of Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya' etc.

In addition to its riveting selection of books, Publications Division is also showcasing its popular and widely circulated journals Yojana, Kurukshetra, Aajkal, and Bal Bharti at the fair. Visitors can also purchase annual subscriptions of journals and Employment News/Rozgar Samachar published by the Division.

The New Delhi World Book Fair is one of the most awaited events of the publishing world, which attracts participation from major publishing houses across the globe. Besides grabbing their favorite reads, the visitors can also witness various other activities taking place on the sidelines of the fair such as Author's Connect, Yuva Corner, Child Authors' Corner and other cultural events.

The Publications Division will be showcasing its books and journals at Stall No D-08, Hall No. 5, Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi.
