

PRESIDENT'S GREETINGS ON THE EVE OF LOHRI, MAKAR SANKRANTI, PONGAL AND MAGH BIHU

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 12 JAN 2026 7:33PM by PIB Delhi

The President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu sends greetings to fellow citizens on the eve of Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Pongal and Magh Bihu (which fall on January 13th and 14th respectively).

In a message the President has said, "On the auspicious occasion of Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Pongal and Magh Bihu festivals, I extend my heartfelt greetings to all Indians residing within India and abroad.

These festivals are a symbol of our rich agricultural traditions and national unity. They are reflection of our vibrant and diverse cultural heritage. These festivals are an occasion to salute the hard work of our farmers who work tirelessly to feed the nation. Through these festivals celebrated across the country, we express our gratitude towards mother nature.

On this auspicious occasion, I wish the spirit of love and solidarity in our society grows stronger and we work together to build a prosperous nation".
