On the occasion of Army Day, Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi paid heartfelt tribute to the indomitable courage and resolute commitment of the Indian Army today.

Shri Modi lauded the steadfast dedication of the jawans who guard the nation's borders under the most challenging conditions, embodying the highest ideals of selfless service sharing a Sanskrit Subhashitam.

The Prime Minister extended his salutations to the Indian Army, affirming the nation's eternal gratitude for their valor and sacrifice.

Sharing separate posts on X, Shri Modi stated:

“On Army Day, we salute the courage and resolute commitment of the Indian Army.

Our soldiers stand as a symbol of selfless service, safeguarding the nation with steadfast resolve, at times under the most challenging conditions. Their sense of duty inspires confidence and gratitude across the country.

We remember with deep respect those who have laid down their lives in the line of duty.
