Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today shared an article highlighting how India stands ready to share its robust digital public infrastructure with the Commonwealth community.

As India hosts the 28th Conference of Speakers and Presiding Officers of the Commonwealth (CSPOC), Lok Sabha Speaker Shri Om Birla underscored the nation's commitment to the timeless ethos of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam – “the world is one family.”

Responding to a post by Lok Sabha Secretariat handle on X, the PMO India handle said:

“As India hosts the 28th CSPOC, Honourable @loksabhaspeaker Shri @ombirlakota underscores that, in the spirit of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, the country stands ready to share its digital public infrastructure with the Commonwealth.

He writes that India does not see technology as a proprietary asset, but as a public good that strengthens democratic resilience across the globe.”
