

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah, addresses the 'Uttar Pradesh Statehood Day' ceremony in Lucknow

The welfare of Uttar Pradesh cannot be ensured by dynastic parties; only our party can do so

By the centenary of Independence, Uttar Pradesh will become a fully developed state and an important pillar of a 'Viksit Bharat'

Our double-engine government has transformed Uttar Pradesh from a BIMARU state into a breakthrough state

Across the country, the 'One District, One Product' scheme has become a source of employment for artisans, youth, and women

Under opposition governments, Uttar Pradesh was reduced to a labour-source state; under our govt, it has become the fourth-largest state in country's economy

The statues of Dr. Mookerjee, Deendayal Ji, and Atal Ji at Lucknow's 'Rashtra Prerna Sthal' will inspire the youth, and this place will become a sacred site for the awakening of the nation's consciousness

The 'Sardar Patel Industrial Area Scheme' launched today will prove to be extremely important in making Uttar Pradesh a one-trillion-dollar economy

Union Home Minister launches the 'One District, One Cuisine' scheme and also inaugurates the Sardar Patel Industrial Area Scheme

Union Home Minister presents awards to districts that performed excellently under the CM YUVA program and conferred the Uttar Pradesh Gaurav Samman 2025–26

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 24 JAN 2026 5:52PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah, addressed the ‘Uttar Pradesh Statehood Day’ ceremony in Lucknow, the capital of Uttar Pradesh. Union Home Minister also launched the ‘One District One Cuisine’ scheme and inaugurated the Sardar Patel Industrial Area Scheme. Shri Amit Shah presented awards to districts that performed excellently under the CM YUVA program and conferred the Uttar Pradesh Gaurav Samman 2025–26. On this occasion, Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh Shri Yogi Adityanath and several other dignitaries were present.

Addressing the gathering on this occasion, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah said that Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has resolved to build a developed India by 2047, and Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Shri Yogi Adityanath has also taken a resolve to make Uttar Pradesh a developed state. He said that when the nation celebrates the centenary of its independence on 15 August 2047, Uttar Pradesh will emerge as a fully developed state and a key pillar of a Developed India. Shri Shah stated that Uttar Pradesh is the heartbeat and soul of India and is now set to become the engine of the country’s development.

Shri Amit Shah said that Lord Shri Ram, Shri Krishna, Baba Vishwanath, Lord Mahavir, and Lord Buddha have sanctified this land. He said that in the coming days, Lucknow’s Prerna Sthal is going to become a site of national awakening. Built in memory of Shyama Prasad Mookerjee, Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya, and Bharat Ratna Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji, this Prerna Sthal will guide the nation for decades to come. Shri Shah said that earlier this 65-acre area had a mountain of garbage, but the government transformed waste into wealth. Today, this place has become a source of inspiration for the entire state of Uttar Pradesh.

Union Home Minister said that five districts were honored today for outstanding performance under the CM YUVA program. He stated that arrangements have been made to provide interest-free and collateral-free loans of up to ₹5 lakh to one lakh youths every year. So far, 1.3 lakh youths have benefited, receiving loans worth ₹5,322 crore. He said that the One District, One Product scheme has now spread not only across Uttar Pradesh but throughout India. Shri Shah added that it has become a source of employment for artisans, youths, and women. Today, one dish has been identified for each district and a cuisine fair has also been organized. He said that the state government has once again presented Uttar Pradesh’s world-famous delicious cuisines to the entire world.

Shri Amit Shah said that today Shri Shubhanshu Shukla, Shri Alakh Pandey, Ms. Rashmi Arya, and Shri Sudhanshu Singh have been conferred the Uttar Pradesh Gaurav Samman. He said that this will certainly encourage many talented individuals to perform excellently in their respective fields. Shri Shah said that today the Sardar Patel Industrial Area, named after the Iron Man Sardar Patel, has also been inaugurated, which will prove to be very important in making Uttar Pradesh a one-trillion-dollar economy. He said that in the first phase of the Sardar Patel Industrial Area in 2025–26, the foundation stone for six zones has been laid today; in the second phase, in 2026–27, six zones will be inaugurated and the foundation stone for 30 zones will be laid; and in the third phase, in 2027–28, 30 zones will be inaugurated and the foundation stone for 39 zones will be laid. He added that efforts are being made to ensure that every district of Uttar Pradesh is linked with employment and that the youth of the state get jobs within their own state.

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation said that under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, Shri Yogi Adityanath has implemented all public welfare schemes on the ground. He said that at one time Uttar Pradesh was considered a labour-source state, but today it has become the fourth-largest state in India's economy. He said that at one time Uttar Pradesh was considered a labour-source state, but today it has become the fourth-largest economy in India. He said that opposition governments had kept Uttar Pradesh as a BIMARU state, but the present government transformed it into a breakthrough state and has taken development to every village. Shri Shah said that over the last three years, Uttar Pradesh's agricultural growth rate has been 17 percent and the state contributes 20 percent to the country's total food-grain production. He said that Uttar Pradesh has now become India's food basket and that all the schemes launched by Prime Minister Modi have been effectively implemented here. The Home Minister said that 62 lakhs poor families have received permanent houses and more than 1 crore women, senior citizens, and persons with disabilities have benefited from pension schemes. He added that the long-awaited construction of the Shri Ram Temple in Ayodhya, for which the entire country had waited for 550 years, has also been completed. Shri Shah said that the grand organization of the Mahakumbh in Prayagraj has taken the glory of Sanatan Dharma to the world.

Shri Amit Shah said that Uttar Pradesh is now competing with other states with an 11 per cent growth in electronics exports. IT exports from Uttar Pradesh have crossed ₹82 thousand crore. Before 2017, one could hardly imagine data centres, semiconductor factories, and electronic manufacturing in the state, but today Uttar Pradesh has become a dream destination for all these. He said that Uttar Pradesh has received investment proposals worth ₹45 lakh crore, of which projects worth ₹15 lakh crore have already been implemented on the ground. He said that there has also been a historic improvement in the law-and-order situation of the state, with a 94 per cent reduction in dacoity and an 82 per cent reduction in robbery, and that the double-engine government has worked to make the state safe.

Union Home Minister said that Uttar Pradesh has protected the nation in every era and that today once again the flame of patriotism has been rekindled in the state. Shri Shah said that dynastic parties cannot ensure the welfare of Uttar Pradesh; only the present government can do so. He said that Prime Minister Modi at the Centre and Shri Yogi Adityanath in the state have explored all possibilities of development and taken Uttar Pradesh forward on the path of progress. The Home Minister said that Prime Minister Modi has created an extensive network of national highways across Uttar Pradesh; the state now has the highest number of airports, and the Government of India has also established a defence corridor here. Shri Shah said that the Yogi government has eliminated corruption, strengthened law and order, and implemented several schemes on the ground for the welfare of every poor person.

RK/PR/PS

(रिलीज़ आईडी: 2218209) आगंतुक पटल : 234

इस विज्ञप्ति को इन भाषाओं में पढ़ें: Tamil , Gujarati , Odia