The All India Institute of Ayurveda (AIIA), the apex institute under the Ministry of AYUSH, has achieved a significant milestone in digital health by signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Centre for Ayurveda Education, Innovation & Technology (CAYEIT). This partnership aims to foster cutting-edge research, technology transfer, and innovative educational frameworks within the Ayurvedic sector.

AIIA Director Prof. (Vd.) P. K. Prajapati signed the MoU on behalf of AIIA, while Prof. Dr. Abhimanyu Kumar, Chairman & CEO, Centre for Ayurveda Education, Innovation & Technology (CAYEIT), signed on behalf of CAYEIT.

The formal ceremony took place at the Brihaspati Dev Triguna Auditorium. Dr. Mahapatra Arun Kumar, Associate Professor, Department of Kaumarabhritya, delivered the welcome note, followed by a briefing on the MoU's objectives by Shri Aviral Apurva, Chief Education & Technology Officer, CAYEIT.

Speaking at the event, the Director of AIIA, Prof. (Vd.) Pradeep Kumar Prajapati, emphasized that the integration of CAYEIT's technological prowess with AIIA's clinical excellence will provide a platform for scholars to transform traditional research into global solutions.

The event was graced by a distinguished galaxy of academicians on the dais, including Prof. Rajagopala S. (Dean Research & Head, Kaumarabhritya) and Prof. Manjusha Rajagopala (Dean, Faculty of Ayurveda, Delhi University & Head, Shalakyas), alongside the Director of AIIA. Following the ceremony, Prof. Abhimanyu Kumar, Former Director of AIIA, delivered an insightful talk titled "Applications of Artificial Intelligence in Ayurveda." He demonstrated how AI and Machine Learning can analyze classical data for personalized "Prakriti-based" medicine and urged the use of Network Pharmacology to provide global evidence for Ayurveda.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks from Dr. Prashant Kumar Gupta, Assistant Professor, Department of Kaumarabhritya, AIIA New Delhi. Till date All India Institute of Ayurveda has signed 74 National MoUs and 20 International MoUs.
