

Andhra Pradesh Day Celebrated with Grand Kuchipudi Performance at Bharat Parv 2026

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 31 JAN 2026 1:54PM by PIB Delhi

On the auspicious occasion of Bharat Parv 2026 being held at the historic Red Fort, 30 January 2026 was celebrated as Andhra Pradesh Day at the festival venue, marking a vibrant showcase of the State's rich cultural, artistic and tourism heritage.

Bharat Parv, organized by the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India as part of the Republic Day celebrations, serves as a grand national platform highlighting the culture, tourism, cuisine, handlooms and heritage of States and Union Territories under the spirit of Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat.

The Andhra Pradesh Pavilion emerged as a major attraction, presenting a vibrant theme-based tourism display, a traditional food court, and an exquisite handloom exhibition. Visitors experienced an immersive glimpse into the State's historical legacy, artistic traditions and creative excellence.

A major highlight of Andhra Pradesh Day was a grand Kuchipudi classical dance performance by 46 distinguished artists, who brought to life the grace, elegance and spiritual depth of Andhra Pradesh's classical dance tradition. The performance captivated audiences and reflected the State's deep-rooted cultural ethos and devotion to preserving classical art forms.

Admirers of Indian culture, tourists and festival visitors attended the celebration in large numbers, encouraging the artists and joining in the pride of Andhra Pradesh on this prestigious national stage.

The celebration of Andhra Pradesh Day at Bharat Parv 2026 stood as a powerful expression of India's cultural diversity and unity, reinforcing the festival's role in promoting cultural exchange and national integration.
