Mormugao, Goa, 6 February, 2026

A team of officers from the National Defence College (NDC) visited the Mormugao Port Authority (MPA) today, February 06, with an aim of getting insights into the Port's operations and infrastructure.

The delegation was received by Dr. N. Vinod kumar, Chairperson, Mormugao Port Authority, and Shri Vinayaka Rao B.S., Deputy Chairperson. Later at an interactive session, the Chairperson welcomed the delegation and explained the functioning of the Port, highlighting the Port's infrastructure, traffic performance, financial parameters, security measures, and future development plans.

A session was also held where discussions focused on port governance, operational efficiency, and the strategic role of ports in national development.

The NDC officers appreciated the Port's infrastructure planning and forward-looking initiatives.
