Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi received a telephone call today from the Prime Minister of the Republic of Mauritius, H.E. Dr. Navinchandra Ramgoolam.

The two leaders reviewed progress in the wide-ranging bilateral cooperation since their last meeting in Varanasi in September 2025 with an emphasis on development partnership, capacity building and people-to-people exchanges.

They reaffirmed their shared commitment to further advancing the Enhanced Strategic Partnership between India and Mauritius for the benefit of the two peoples.

Prime Minister Modi reiterated India's continued support for Mauritius' development priorities in line with Vision MAHASAGAR, India's Neighbourhood First policy and shared commitment to the Global South.

Both leaders agreed to continue working closely to achieve the shared objectives of peace and stability in the Indian Ocean Region.

Prime Minister Modi conveyed that he looked forward to welcoming him in Delhi for the AI Impact Summit next week.
