NTPC has been included in the prestigious TIME Asia-Pacific's Best Companies of 2026 list, released on February 11, 2026. With this achievement, NTPC has achieved a significant global milestone. The list is published by TIME in partnership with Statista, a leading international provider of market and consumer data and rankings.

The "Asia-Pacific's Best Companies of 2026" ranking is a comprehensive analysis aimed at identifying the top-performing companies in the Asia-Pacific region. The ranking focuses on three key dimensions: Employee Satisfaction, Financial Performance, and Sustainability Transparency (ESG). NTPC's inclusion in this elite list reflects its strong, well-rounded performance and its steadfast commitment to excellence across all these parameters.

Aligned with its Vision to be the world's leading power company, accelerating India's growth and energy transition, NTPC continues to deliver reliable, affordable, and sustainable energy solutions. This prestigious recognition stands as a testament to NTPC's relentless pursuit of excellence and its growing stature as a formidable force on the global stage.

The honour also reaffirms NTPC's unique and people-centric "People before PLF (Plant Load Factor)" philosophy. The company has consistently set benchmarks in human resource development and management through continuous process improvement, nurturing a caring, inclusive, and learning-oriented workplace. By prioritising employee well-being, fostering engagement, and aligning progressive people practices with strategic business objectives, NTPC has created a meaningful, collaborative, and empowering employee experience.

This global recognition by TIME further strengthens NTPC's position as an employer of choice and a leader in sustainable growth, reinforcing its role in shaping a brighter, cleaner, and more resilient energy future for India and the world.
