Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi greeted the people of Mizoram on the occasion of their Statehood Day today.

PM hailed the strong community spirit and gracious people of Mizoram who embody values of kindness and compassion.

In a post on X, Shri Modi said:

“Greetings to the people of Mizoram on their Statehood Day.

Mizoram is widely known for its striking natural beauty and enduring cultural traditions. Its strong community spirit and gracious people embody values of kindness and compassion. The rich Mizo heritage, expressed through tradition, music and other aspects of everyday life is very inspiring.

May Mizoram advance on the path of growth and achieve new milestones in the years ahead.”
