Nagpur : 24 February 2026

The National Academy of Direct Taxes (NADT), Nagpur, recently organised the INTAX 2026 Sports Event, marking a vibrant celebration of teamwork, discipline and sporting excellence. The multi-day event witnessed enthusiastic participation from Officer Trainees, faculty members and staff, who competed across a wide range of sporting disciplines, displaying remarkable energy, sportsmanship and camaraderie.

The closing ceremony was presided over by Dr. Sibichen K. Mathew, Director General, NADT, who congratulated the winners and appreciated all participants for their dedication and spirited involvement. In his address, he highlighted the inspiring atmosphere on the sports grounds and appreciated the active participation of the NADT community, including faculty members and their families. He commended the organising teams, officials, coaches and support staff for their tireless efforts in making the event a grand success.

The INTAX 2026 Sports Event reaffirmed the importance of physical fitness, teamwork and holistic development, while strengthening the sense of unity and institutional spirit within the NADT fraternity.
