

Union Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram Offers Prayers at Shri Banke Bihari Temple; Reviews Cold Storage Facility in Hathras

Posted On: 25 FEB 2026 6:45PM by PIB Delhi

Union Minister for Tribal Affairs Shri Jual Oram today visited the world-renowned Shri Banke Bihari Temple in Mathura district and offered prayers to Lord Shri Krishna, seeking peace, prosperity, and well-being for all citizens of the country.

Meanwhile the Union Minister also inspected potato cold storage facility located in Bas Amru village under the Sadabad Assembly constituency in Hathras district. During the visit he reviewed the storage arrangements, cold chain systems, and other facilities being provided to farmers. He directed the officials and management to accord the highest priority to farmers' interests, enhance storage capacity, and ensure transparency in operations.

He also interacted with local residents and potato farmers in Bas Amru village. On this occasion, farmers shared their views regarding fair pricing of agricultural produce, expansion of storage facilities, and effective implementation of government schemes.

Listening attentively to the concerns of the farmers, the Union Minister assured them that the Central Government remains committed to farmers' welfare, enhancement of income, and strengthening of agriculture infrastructure, and that various schemes are being effectively implemented in this direction. The visit reflected the Government's commitment to spiritual values, rural development, and farmer welfare.

RN/

Read this release in: Urdu , हिन्दी