

Blood Donation Camp Organized at Defence Offices Complex, New Delhi

Posted On: 27 FEB 2026 12:24PM by PIB Delhi

The Office of Joint Secretary & Chief Administrative Officer (CAO/Welfare), Ministry of Defence, in coordination with the Office of Director General, Armed Forces Medical Services (AFMS), organized a Blood Donation Camp for the Indian Armed Forces on February 26, 2026. The camp was held at Defence Offices Complex, Africa Avenue, New Delhi.

A medical team from the Armed Forces Transfusion Centre, Delhi Cantt, provided the necessary logistics and manpower support for the conduct of the camp.

The event received an overwhelming response from the employees, reflecting their commitment to the service of the Armed Forces. A total of 131 officials donated blood during the drive, including civilian officials of the Armed Forces Headquarters (AFHQ) and service personnel. Certificates of appreciation were issued to the donors on the spot.
