(7) Every State Government and Union territory Administration shall, by notification, appoint one or more Special Public Prosecutors for every Special Fast Track Court in accordance with sub-section (8) of section 18 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, for conduct of cases under this Act.

(8) Every person appointed as a Special Public Prosecutor under this section, shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor within the meaning of clause (v) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and the provisions of that Sanhita shall apply accordingly.

12B. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, an appeal shall lie from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Fast Track Court to the High Court.

(2) Every appeal under sub-section (1) shall be heard by a bench of two Judges of the High Court and shall, as far as possible, be disposed of within a period of three months from the date of admission of the appeal.

(3) Except as aforesaid, no appeal or revision shall lie to any Court from any judgment, sentence or order including an interlocutory order of a Special Fast Track Court.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 419 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Fast Track Court granting or refusing bail.

(5) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the judgment, sentence or order appealed from:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period of thirty days:

Provided further that no appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of the period of ninety days.”.

Appeals.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Act, 2024 (the said Act) was enacted to prevent resorting to unfair means in public examinations and to provide for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto. The said Act, being a pan-Indian legislation, aims at effectively deterring persons, organised groups and institutions from indulging in unfair means thereby committing offences, adversely impacting the sanctity of public examinations. The objective of the said Act is to bring greater transparency, fairness and credibility and inspire confidence in the public examinations system.

2. In recent years, there have been some incidents of question paper leakages and malpractices in examinations conducted by public examination authorities, which tend to affect the transparency and fairness of the public examinations system.

3. Hence, in order to further strengthen the fairness, to enhance the credibility of the public examinations system and to facilitate speedy trial and ensure time bound investigations of offences under the said Act, it is necessary to make amendments in the said Act, inter alia,—

(i) to empower all State Governments and Union territory Administrations to designate any Court of Session to be a Special Fast Track Court to try offences under the said Act;

(ii) to provide that the proceedings in such Special Fast Track Courts are continued on day-to-day basis and the trial shall be completed within a period of three months from the date of filing of the charge sheet;

(iii) to empower the Central Government to also constitute Special Task Force for investigation of any offence, if necessary;

(iv) to provide that the investigations for offences under the said Act are completed within a period of two months;

(v) to empower all State Governments and Union territory Administrations to appoint one or more Special Public Prosecutors for conduct of cases under the said Act;

(vi) to enhance the term of imprisonments and fines provided therein for offences committed under the said Act; and

(vii) to provide for appeal mechanism as against any judgement, sentence or order to a bench of two Judges of the High Court, and for disposal of the same within a period of three months from the date of admission of appeal.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
