4. Amendment of section 9 of Bom. LXII of 1947.- In the principal Act, in section 9, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be added, namely: -

“(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a transfer or partition of a land contrary to the provisions of this Act made on or after the 29th January, 1948 but on or before 31st March, 2026 shall be deemed to have been regularised without charging any penalties or premium therefor and all pending proceedings before any officer or authority in respect of the aforesaid transfer or partition shall abate.”.

STATEMENT

The Gujarat Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947 (Bom. LXII of 1947) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") was enacted with the objective of preventing fragmentation of agricultural land holdings and providing for consolidation thereof, with a view to securing agricultural efficiency and ensuring orderly management of agricultural land.

The Act has been in force for more than seven decades. During this period, substantial changes have taken place in the socio-economic conditions of the State, patterns of land use and agricultural practices. In view of these developments, it has become necessary to review certain provisions of the Act to ensure that its objectives are achieved in a manner consistent with present-day requirements.

With expansion of urban and municipal areas, agricultural lands situated in such areas and their periphery have been included in residential, commercial, and industrial zones under development Plans, rendering such lands eligible and more suitable for non-agricultural use. Notwithstanding this, transfers and partitions of such lands, effected in contravention of the provisions of the Act, have led to creation of fragmented holdings. Due to statutory restrictions, or such transactions reflected in record of rights evidence are in violation of provision of the Act at relevant time, thereby preventing occupants from obtaining requisite permissions for commencement of non-agricultural use.

In order to resolve the said issue it is necessary to amend the sections 5 and 9 of the Act to meet current socio-economic and land use realities and to balance agricultural interests with developmental needs of the State.

As the Legislative Assembly of the State of Gujarat is not in session, the Gujarat Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings (Amendment) Ordinance is promulgated to amend the Gujarat Prevention of Fragmentation and Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1947 to achieve the aforesaid objects.

Gandhinagar.

Dated the 10th July, 2026.

ACHARYA DEVVRAT,

Governor of Gujarat.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Gujarat,

DR. JAYANTI S. RAVI,

Additional Chief Secretary to Government.
