- (c) whether training has covered guides, homestays, water-sports, food services and other locally relevant occupations; and
- (d) the details of plan to expand demand-linked tourism skilling in the said district?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRI GAJENDRA SINGH SHEKHAWAT)

(a) to (d): The Ministry of Tourism conducts hospitality and tourism related short-term training certificate courses for skilling, up skilling and re skilling under its “Capacity Building for Service Providers (CBSP)” scheme through Government institutes and empanelled private institutes including Institute of Hotel Management, Food Craft Institutes, Indian Culinary Institute, etc.

These demand-linked tourism and hospitality skilling training courses, inter-alia include, Hunar Se Rozgar Tak, Entrepreneurship Programme, Skill Testing & Certification, Tourism Awareness Programme. These courses are envisaged to enhance the employability of candidates in diverse professions like guiding, homestays, water-sports, food services and other locally relevant occupations. Efforts are undertaken to enhance the coverage of CBSP scheme by expanding/revising the curriculum, adding tourist destination as per the industry need across the country.

A statement showing the details of trainees certified and placed or self-employed across the country including the state of Karnataka, during last three years is annexed.
