

Regarding need to develop Shringverpur Dham in Prayagraj district, Uttar Pradesh as a global tourist destination- laid

Shringverpur Dham, Prayagraj (Uttar Pradesh) : Shringverpur Dham is a famous Hindu temple complex located in Prayagraj district, Uttar Pradesh. It is one of the four main Dhamas in the region, along with Kashi, Varanasi, and Allahabad. The temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva and is believed to be the site of the birth of Lord Hanuman. The temple complex is surrounded by a large area of land, which is currently under development. The government has decided to develop Shringverpur Dham as a global tourist destination. This decision was taken after a long process of consultation and planning. The development plan includes the construction of a large temple complex, a museum, a library, and a hotel. It also includes the development of the surrounding area, including roads, bridges, and public facilities. The government has allocated a large amount of money for the development of Shringverpur Dham. This money will be used for the construction of the temple complex and the surrounding infrastructure. The development of Shringverpur Dham is expected to bring a lot of economic benefits to the region. It will create many jobs and attract a large number of tourists. The government is committed to the development of Shringverpur Dham and is working hard to make it a global tourist destination. The development plan is being implemented in a phased manner. The first phase includes the construction of the temple complex and the surrounding infrastructure. The second phase includes the construction of the museum, the library, and the hotel. The third phase includes the development of the surrounding area, including roads, bridges, and public facilities. The government is working hard to complete the development plan as soon as possible. The development of Shringverpur Dham is a very important project for the government. It will help to promote tourism in the region and bring economic benefits to the people.
