

Regarding the issue of increasing leopard attacks in some regions of Maharashtra

1. The Government of Maharashtra, through the Forest Department, has been taking various steps to address the issue of increasing leopard attacks in some regions of Maharashtra. The Government has been providing financial assistance to the affected regions for the purpose of strengthening the forest guard system, providing training to the forest guards, and providing medical aid to the victims of leopard attacks.

The Government has also been taking steps to improve the habitat of leopards in the affected regions. The Government has been providing financial assistance to the affected regions for the purpose of creating artificial habitats for leopards, providing water to the leopards, and providing food to the leopards. The Government has also been taking steps to improve the security of the affected regions. The Government has been providing financial assistance to the affected regions for the purpose of strengthening the forest guard system, providing training to the forest guards, and providing medical aid to the victims of leopard attacks.

1200 1500
60
1972? 1
2

The Government has also been taking steps to improve the security of the affected regions. The Government has been providing financial assistance to the affected regions for the purpose of strengthening the forest guard system, providing training to the forest guards, and providing medical aid to the victims of leopard attacks.