SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL (ALAPPUZHA): As per Rule 72 under the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha, I rise to object to the Bills introduced by Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal and Shri Amit Shah.

This Bill is a fundamental attack on the federal structure of the Union of India. The entire country is watching what exactly is the intention of the Government behind the introduction of these Bills.

In 2023, Parliament passed a Bill in both Houses of Parliament, Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha, ensuring 33 per cent reservation for women in Parliament and Vidhan Sabhas. At that point of time, the present Leader of the Opposition in Lok Sabha, Shri Rahul Gandhi, the Leader of the Opposition of the other House, Shri Mallikarjun Kharge, former Chairperson of the Congress Parliamentary Party, Sonia Gandhiji, and all other Opposition leaders asked the Government to enforce the Women's Reservation Bill in Parliament and other Vidhan Sabhas in 2024 itself. ?.(Interruptions)

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Articles 81 and 82 of the Constitution provide complete protection by fixing seats to States on a representation basis. This Government wants to hijack this constitutional protection. ?.(Interruptions) The Bill is very clear. ?.(Interruptions)

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Sir, why did the Government not implement the Women's Reservation Bill before 2024 elections?

[illegible]

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: What is the procedure of the House, Sir?

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: You allow me to speak.

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: The Minister can reply finally.

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Why is Amit Shah ji interfering minute to minute? He can reply, Sir. What is there, Sir? ? (Interruptions) You can reply. My point is very clear. Sir, there is no mic.

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: The mic is not working. ? (Interruptions)

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Sir, therefore, we insisted that women's reservation should be implemented in 2024. You brought a Bill that women's reservation will be implemented after the Census and Census after the delimitation. This is done by the Government only, not the Opposition. Now, you are telling that delimitation based on current census is not possible before 2029. Therefore, you have a better example in Assam. You have a better example in Jammu and Kashmir. How you have completely done the delimitation exercise, the entire country knows that. You want to centralise that delimitation. ? (Interruptions)

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Sir, when Indira Gandhi ji was the Prime Minister, the protection to the States has been given by the Constitution for 25 years.

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Sir, Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji also, in 2001, extended that protection. Now, you want to take away the protection given by Indira ji and Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

SHRI K. C. VENUGOPAL: Your intention is very clear, Sir. Your intention is to hijack the Indian democracy. ? (Interruptions) Sir, you know about the Indian people's mindset. You are scared of the 2029 elections. You want an escape route to cover up 2029 elections. That is why, you bring an anti-constitutional Bill.

Therefore, I think the Minister has to withdraw this Bill.

the Constitutional competency as well as the legislative competence of introducing this Bill. According to Rule 72(1) proviso, kindly provide me some time so as to elucidate my case regarding the legislative competence of the Bill.

Number one, the 131st Constitution Amendment Bill is not meant for the women's reservation, but it is meant for the delimitation. This is the basic objection we are raising. The hon. Home Minister is always talking about the women's reservation. As per the Constitutional provision, this House unanimously, except two hon. Members, passed the Women's Reservation Bill as per the 2023 Act. So, that has become the part and parcel of the Constitution, and that is in existence. The same Home Minister has moved the Bill or the Government has moved the Bill and that was unanimously passed except two Members who have voted against it. So, that Bill is in existence. ? (Interruptions)

These are all technical points. The Statement of Objects and Reasons should be in consonance with the contents of the Bill, which is also a legislative practice. Here, it is missing in Para 6. Kindly see Para 6 that Shri K. C. Venugopal has just pointed out, namely 'the next census and the consequential delimitation exercise thereafter will take considerable time'. Sir, whether the Government is not aware that the delimitation process as well as the census process will take time. So, after the delimitation, the Women's Reservation Bill can be made practicable only by 2034? (Interruptions) Another very important point. ? (Interruptions)

§ 87(2)(b)

Article 81(3) is the cardinal Constitutional point in this case. According to that, which census is to be taken for considering the population will be as per the Constitution. It is a Constitutional obligation and mandate. Now, the Government is changing that

SHRI T. R. BAALU (SRIPERUMBUDUR): Sir, I rise to oppose the Bills which have already been sandwiched, and we can call it as a sandwich Bill. ? (Interruptions) All the three Bills can be called as sandwich Bills because everything is interlinked together. So, the Government has not come forward to see that each and every Bill is put separately. They have sandwiched each and every thing, and everywhere it has got a link. Every speaker of this House would find it very difficult to distinguish between one Bill and another Bill.

a delimitation, they want to have a census, and after the census it has to come into force. ? (Interruptions)

SHRI T. R. BAALU: At the same time, we would like to clarify that the opposition to these Bills do not alter our Party's stand for immediate implementation of 33 per cent reservation for women in Parliament and legislatures. So, DMK's stand is very clear. They should not just find fault with it in between, so that things will be very clear. That is why, I am reiterating it. We are for women's reservation and this women's reservation should be taken up forthwith without any further delay.

Adhiniyam, was passed in 2023. In this context, introducing another amendment raises doubts about the Government's intent, especially amid forthcoming State elections, suggesting political motives rather than democratic commitment. Such significant amendments cannot be rushed. This Bill risks centralising powers and weakening States.

Therefore, I urge the Government to withdraw this Bill. The Bill should come after the Census and then it should be implemented. I once again object to introduction of the Bill.
