As part of the ongoing Swachhata Pakhwada 2026, the Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law & Justice, organized a series of activities to promote cleanliness, hygiene, and public awareness among officers and staff.

The observance commenced with a Mass Swachhata Pledge and rendition of the Swachhata Bharat Anthem at the Conference Room in Shastri Bhawan, reaffirming the commitment of participants towards the vision of a clean and healthy India. Dr. Rajiv Mani, Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs, administered the pledge to officers and staff members of the Department on 02.04.2026.

A Signature Campaign was conducted at office premises and thereby encouraging employees and visitors to actively support the Swachhata initiative and driving the quintessential message of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

To foster greater engagement and awareness, a Selfie Booth was set up at the same locations, enabling participants to share their support for cleanliness drives through creative expressions.

Additionally, a Rangoli Activity was also organized showcasing artistic representations of cleanliness and environmental consciousness.

These activities witnessed enthusiastic participation from officers and staff, reinforcing the spirit of collective responsibility towards maintaining cleanliness in workplaces and beyond.

The Department of Legal Affairs remains committed to furthering the objectives of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan through sustained awareness and active participation.
