Pune, 8 April 2026

The Martyrdom Day of HC/RO Amle Sopan, who made the supreme sacrifice during the Tadmetsla massacre on 06 April 2010, was observed with deep respect and solemnity at his native village Wadala Wadali, District Jalgaon, Maharashtra. The ceremony witnessed the presence of family members, local villagers, and representatives from the civil administration.

Shri Vaibhav Nimbalkar, IPS, Deputy Inspector General, Group Centre, CRPF Pune, paid heartfelt floral tributes to the brave soldier and honored his indomitable courage and sacrifice in the line of duty.

During his visit, Shri Nimbalkar also met the families (Veer Pariwar) of CT/GD Laxman Patil and CT/GD Hemant Joshi at Chalisgaon, District Jalgaon. He paid floral tributes and interacted with the family members, patiently listening to their welfare-related issues and grievances. He assured them of all possible assistance and reaffirmed the Force's unwavering commitment to their well-being.

The occasion reflected the collective respect and gratitude of the nation towards its bravehearts. The presence of villagers, officials, and family members added to the solemnity of the event, symbolizing unity and remembrance.

The Central Reserve Police Force reiterates its steadfast support to the families of its martyrs, standing firmly with its Veer Pariwar—today and always.
