The PMRBP award honours children for extraordinary achievements across six fields. The Categories for nomination are as follows:

- Bravery: Children who risked their lives to save others or showed outstanding courage
- Sports: Children who achieved accolades at national or international level competitions
- Social Service: Children who launched initiatives to help reform aspects of society, preserve the environment, help the underprivileged, and stood for national causes
- Science & Technology: Innovations, research, or prototypes built by children
- Environment: Sustainable practices, awareness campaigns, or eco-innovations
- Art & Culture: Children who exhibited extraordinary talent and excelled in music, dance, writing, painting, performance, or other arts.

The Ministry of Women and Child Development hereby invites schools, institutions, parents, mentors, and the public to actively seek out such talent and nominate them. Let us ensure that every deserving child gets a national platform to shine.
