Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today shared an article written by former President Shri Ram Nath Kovind.

The article reflects on how the last 12 years have marked a decisive shift from the idea of discovering India to building a deeper trust in Bharat. It further points out that the enduring success of his continuous tenure lies in sustaining a strong bond of trust with the people while steering India's transformative journey.

The Prime Minister posted on X:

"This article by former President Shri @ramnathkovind celebrates India's longest-serving democratically elected Prime Minister in consecutive terms, also reflecting on how the last 12 years have marked a decisive shift from the idea of discovering India to building a deeper trust in Bharat. This article by him notes PM Modi's enduring success lies in sustaining a strong bond of trust with the people while steering India's transformative journey."
